

Consulting Faculty

Overview:

The Leadership Academy's Consulting Faculty are experts in culturally responsive school and school system leadership who possess significant expertise and experience in developing and delivering highly effective professional learning and/or coaching. They serve as a lead practitioner on project teams, contributing instructional and/or content expertise as needed. As part of their work on assigned projects, Consulting Faculty may design and facilitate professional learning sessions and/or create curricula, tools, and other resources. When serving in a central role on project teams, Consulting Faculty may also be accountable for maintaining close communication with clients and contributing to the creation of a shared vision for success. They take responsibility for overall delivery of projects as needed, set workflow, and work plans, and ensure deliverables are met and work is high-quality and on budget.

To be considered for Consulting Faculty opportunities, individuals must possess:

- System-level leadership experience and/or experience as a school leader
- Will and skill to facilitate learning about racial bias and other forms of bias
- Proven instructional expertise
- Significant knowledge of and experience with educational leadership, professional learning, adult learning, school structures, and systems
- Deep understanding of culturally responsive practice
- Demonstrated success in effectively leading professional learning for a variety of audiences
- Ability to travel (must have a valid driver's license)
- Capacity and skill to facilitate in virtual formats

Additional skills desired:

- Bilingual in Spanish and/or Mandarin
- Background in social emotional learning or restorative practices
- Background in family engagement
- Background in designing/developing culturally responsive curriculum

Consultants are hired for specific projects at a daily rate of $1000-$1200 per day.

If you would like to be considered for consulting opportunities through The Leadership Academy, please complete this survey: <https://survey.alchemer.com/s3/6823129/Consulting-Faculty>

The Leadership Academy is an Equal Opportunity Employer

We believe that diversity within our staff contributes to our team's effectiveness to our overall success.